

BRACKENQUILL

Little Learning Adventures

Woodland Letters & Listening

Ages 4-6 | Language and listening

Talk, listen, match letters and play with familiar words in a gentle woodland setting.

A a

Listen. Talk. Explore.

8 activities + grown-up guide + answers

A4 printable / Read-together HTML companion

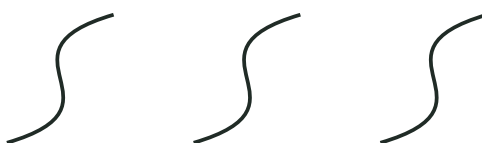

APPROVAL EDITION - NOT YET FOR SALE

ACTIVITY 1 / LANGUAGE AND LISTENING

Listen on a woodland walk

Today I can: Attend to and describe sounds.

Imagine a woodland, or listen from a safe place with a grown-up. No outdoor visit is needed.

1. Name or draw one quiet sound you might hear.

2. Name or draw one louder sound.

3. Make a sound for someone to copy. Take turns.

4. Which sound did you enjoy? Tell someone why.

ACTIVITIES 1-4

Answers & discussion notes

1. Listen on a woodland walk

- 1) Open response: for example rustling leaves. Accept any sensible imagined or real sound.
- 2) Open response; compare relative loudness, not a fixed answer.
- 3) Adult observes listening and turn-taking.
- 4) Personal response. No right or wrong preference.

2. Match the letter pairs

- 1) a
- 2) m
- 3) s
- 4) t

3. Hear the first sound

- 1) /s/
- 2) /m/
- 3) /t/
- 4) /a/ as in apple. Accept the child's usual accent.

4. Rhyme time

- 1) dog
- 2) hat
- 3) pen
- 4) Accept a spoken word or invented word with the same ending, e.g. bee, zee. No spelling assessment.